The Shriner Emblem

The emblem on the front of the fez, the crescent and scimitar, is an important part of the fraternity's theme, and is representative of the characteristics embodied by the Shriners.

The scimitar stands for the backbone of the fraternity, its members.

The two claws are for the Shriners fraternity and its philanthropy.

The sphinx stands for the governing body of the Shriners.

The five-pointed star represents the thousands of children helped by the philanthropy each year.

The emblem also bears the phrase "Robur et Furor," which means "Strength and Fury."

The Week Ahead Boss Clown

Good morning Clowns! Hope you all had a wonderful weekend and a great Mother's Day spending time with or reflecting on one of the most important people in your life, mother.

This week is slow, we have Egypt's stated meeting Wednesday night at 7:00 pm, then Sunday a group of Clowns ride off to Maggie Valley for a week of fun on two wheels.

The word on the street is the "Because you Can" party is going to be big. Keep pushing the event and selling tickets, as the event will be here soon.

Kash Klown

Don't forget to sell your Kash Klown tickets! Remember the drawing for $500 cash will be done on June 14th at the "Because You Can" event and the winner does not need to be present. These are great selling points to use!

The Shriner Fez

The fez is one of the most recognizable symbols of Shriners International, and was adopted as the Shriners' official headgear in 1872. Named after the city of Fez, Morocco, the hat represented the Arabian theme the fraternity was founded on. It also serves as an outward symbol of one's membership in the fraternity. Much like the white apron worn by Masons as a symbol of their brotherhood, the fez is worn only by Shriners as a symbol of their membership in this unique fraternity.

Today the fez is worn at Shriners' functions, in parades and at outings as a way of gaining exposure for the fraternity. Members customize their fez to show their allegiance to their temple. Look closely at a fez and you will also learn other important information about its wearer, such as membership in Shrine clubs, special roles within the organization and much more. Each fez is custom made and a Shriner may own more than one fez depending on his activities and memberships.

Nobles should wear their fezzes at stated meetings, ceremonials, Shriners parades, special Shriners events and other

Shriners-related activities.

The fez is not a bulletin board or advertising space. The only pin permitted on the fez is one to hold the tassel in place. The fez shall be worn in its proper shape, without crushing, creasing or alteration.

A Shriners lapel pin is to be worn on the left lapel of a suit coat or jacket, and is appropriate to be worn at all times.

Fun With A Purpose

During the early part of the 20th century membership in Shriners International grew at a steady pace. By 1946, membership had jumped to 150,000 Nobles and another 250,000 had joined by 1958. In fact, Shriners International experienced one of its largest periods of growth in the years following World War II as returning soldiers looked for new ways to continue the camaraderie they had experienced with their fellow soldiers.

As the number of temples and nobles grew, so too did the hospitals. By 1958 the hospitals' endowment was valued at $125 million and growing. The nobles were proving themselves to be excellent fundraisers. The Shrine Circus, founded in 1906 for fun and entertainment, began to play a role as a significant fundraiser in support of the hospitals.

Today, there are nearly 200 temples across North America, South America, Europe and Southeast Asia. In addition to the Shrine Circus, temples hold events throughout the year ranging from fish fries to concerts, car shows to fishing tournaments. It is fun with a purpose – supporting the important mission of Shriners Hospitals for Children®.

Thoughts for the week

It's been an unusually slow week for the Fun 'n' Frolic unit and we're all looking forward to getting active again.

If you have the chance to attend the unit meeting this coming Wednesday (the 14th) you should do so. A presentation will be done for the FSA awards and your unit brought home more awards than any other at Egypt Shrine or anywhere else. Come on out and give your support and congratulations to your fellow clowns.

Have a wonderful week, be well to yourself and others and remember.. if it's not fun, don't do it!

- Dash
