The Week Ahead Boss Clown

Good morning clowns and welcome to another busy week and for a heads up, it looks like the rest of the month will be full of events and activities.

Balloons up to the clowns that were able to attend the Ceremonial Saturday. So many of us were attending other events or out of town, I am told you made the show. Great job!

On Wednesday is Egypt's Stated meeting beginning at 7:30 pm followed by a full day of parades on Saturday. The Brooksville and Inverness parades kick off Saturday at 9:00 am (line up) in Brooksville then step into the Inverness parade as soon as we finish Brooksville. Shaker has agreed to bring the Clowns F150 Saturday for those who have mobility issues (bring a folding chair so you will have a place to sit). We will probably meet at the unit room around 8:00 am and car pool north.

I will let you know for sure on the car pool later in the week.

Sunday is an opportunity for us to show the community who we are and what we are about at the Helping Heather Heal fund raiser at Boots n Buckles. It would be great for us to attend this event, either in face or under Fez (unit shirt, khaki slacks or jeans if you like and fez). If you are able to attend, please remember; this is not a fund raiser for Egypt Shrine or Shriners Hospital for Children. This event is to raise funds for the family. We can and will take this great opportunity to introduce those attending to the Shrine of North America, our Hospital System and the Sneaker fund.

Sneaking out a little, Tuesday the 16th is the Showmen's Children's Christmas party from 7:30 am to 12:00 pm. This group does a lot for the children in the community and have asked if we will entertain at their event. If you are available we will be in face and having fun, come join us.

Enjoy your Week

Smurf
