Fun 'n' Frolic Weekly

February 23rd 2015

The Week Ahead Boss Clown

Good morning Clowns, hope all is well in your world.

Last week was full of fun events as is this one. Last Friday Kranky was able to attend Hospital Days at SHCT. He walked away as all of have, humbled. Clowns, this is an event that will remind you why you are a Shriner, much less a Shrine Clown.

Reports have it Nickels is on the road! He was seen at the Circus office turning in ad sales on his own. Right now the jury is out on whether or not he escaped Lady Emily or had permission from the head nurse.

We almost had a full table at the Potentate's Ball last Saturday night. We missed one couple who had way too much fun on a cruise and one that made it but was unable to really enjoy the evening as he had oral surgery that morning and the pain med's wore off. Hope these Clowns get better soon.

Now the week ahead, it is full. Fred C. (813.416.0690) stills needs help for the "Music on the Bay 2015" event. This event starts on Thursday and runs through Sunday and is a lot of fun. Give Fred a call, bring your Fez, unit shirt and enjoy the tunes.

Our big event (clowned out if possible, unit shirt if that will get you there) is the Lupton's Foster Children's event at Lupton's Boggy Bottom (8407 Lupton Pl, Plant City, FL 33567). Mr. Lupton will feed you at 11:30a and the event starts at 12p and runs till about 5p. I cannot explain how much fun this event is, you will truly be the star of the show.

Monday (March 2) is the Strawberry Festival Parade. Line up at 11a, step off at 12p from Martin Luther King & S. Wheeler (Bank parking Lot). Most park at the Masonic Lodge and hitch a ride to the lineup point (more to come).

Here you go, another full week of fun for FnF and don't forget your Circus Adds are due before the 13th of March.

Enjoy your Week.
Smurf
