The Week Ahead

Boss Clown

Good morning clowns, hope all is well and you are ready for another fun week. We have our unit meeting Wednesday evening, hope to see you all there for a little fun and fellowship.

The big event coming up is on the last Monday of May, Memorial Day or if you are from before the WWII era you may know this as Decoration Day.

Memorial Day was first purposed as Decoration Day in May of 1868 to honor those who gave their all during the Civil War. New York was the first state to recognize Decoration Day in 1873 and by 1890 all the Northern states had gotten on board. The Southern states honored their fallen in the same manor. After WWI Decoration Day was extended to include all men and women, who died in any war or military action. It was not until after WWII the name was changed to Memorial Day and up until the National Holiday Act of 1971 Memorial Day was held on the 30th of May (no matter what day of the week it fell on).

Let us never forget those who gave their all so we can live free, in the greatest country on the planet.
